and Colonel Ellett, seeing that Judge Ingram has declined to enter it. JUDGE INGRAM'S REASONS.

Judge Ingram's reasons for not standing in the primary are given in the following letter:

MANCHESTER, VA., July 31, 1894.

M. L. Dawson, Esq., Chairman of City Democratic Committee of Richmond:
Dear Sir,—After a conference with my friends in the city of Richmond I have determined to make no contest at the primary to be held here on the 2d of August. My reasons for so doing are as follows: There are two prominent Richmond candidates in the field, both of whom naturally have a much larger personal as well as political acquaintance in their own city than I nave, being a resident of Manchester. The system adopted by your committee does not give a representation of delegates based or the actual number of votes cast, but "the candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast in each precinct." Under this system I could hardly be expected to secure any delicates against two local candidates. In those declinang to enter the contest in Richmond, I make this statement of my realous therefor in no spirit of complaint or criticism, but in justice to my many friends who have generously offered me their support. In conclusion I would say that while I decline to enter the contest in Richmond, I am still a candidate before the people of the district, and my name will be presented to the Democratic commettion which meets on the 8th of August. I shall take the on the 8th of August. I shall take the liberty of sending this communication to the public press as the best mode of ad-vising my friends and the public of my vising my friends and the public of my continuance in the contert, as well as to let them know my reasons for having declined to make a contest in your city. Thanking your committee for their uniform courtesy, I am,

Yours very truly,
JOHN H. INGRAM.

Judge Edmund Waddill in conversation with a Dispatch man yesterday said that he had taken no active interest in the proposed conference, for the reason that he thought this an inopportune time for the Republicans of this district to attempt to make a fight to return a congressman. He did not believe that the conference would attempt to nominate a candidate to-day, and thought that the meeting would adjourn without taking any definite action. Meaers. Wray T. Knight, chairman: Burnley Taylor, of King William; Joseph Walker, of Chesterfield; J. W. Southward, and John Mitchell, of Henrico, compose the District Committee, and it is more than probable that if the conference expresses a desire to put a candidate in the field, these gentlemen will call a convention for that purpose without conferring with the State Committee.

The readings of the thermometer were taken on an elevated plateau near the city, the position of the instruments being free from any influence of refracted heat. They are self-registering, of the very best French manufacture, and the figures are believed to be absolutely correct:

Notes.

There was to have been a meeting of the new City Central Democratic Com mittee of Manchester last night for the purpose of organization, but a quorum not being present the meeting was adjourned over until next Friday night at 8 o'clock. The Dispatch man talked with several members of the committee, and they pretty generally expressed the opinion that a chairman should be selected outside of the committee. The argument in favor of this was that as most of the members were workingmen, and did not have the time to attend to the arduous duties of the position, a professional or businessman might be secured who could better look after the work.

One of the gentlemen remarked that he thought the campaign this fall would be a hard one, and that there would be a great deal of work for the committee to do, and that it was of vast importance to have a good chairman, and one familiar with political work.
